THE PLACE OF MUSIC IN THE CHILD S EDUCATION BY MABEL MADISON WATSON That the gentle art of music may have educationally a value greater than any one or two of the important branches usually taught in preparatory schools or colleges, few parents realize. The schools themselves are only lately awakening to this fact; and although musical appreciation is growing with a rapidity characteristic of our national spirit, it is with us still in its infancy, despite the truly heroic efforts and achievements of many of its pioneers. Parents, especially mothers, even those who have had little or no musical training and probably consider themselves unmusical, can help tremendously toward our national musical growth. At the same time, their children will be gaining qualities, both through discipline and development, which will make them in all respects better citizens, and dower them with a source little short of magical for giving and receiving pleasure, a solace for grief or care, an influence perpetually broadening their mental horizon toward artistic truth and beauty. Our Children Are Entitled to Music, the Universal Language One of the first, the most essential, of...
