The substitution of the trolley car for the horse car has revolutionized city life, led to the enormous development of our suburban districts and entirely changed the possibilities of country living. There is no class of people who have not profited by the change. The new power has revolutionized the street railway industry. The changes which it made in urban street railway transportation are generally known. These roads, however, were affected less than any other class of lines. Electric power brought into being an entirely new transportation agency. The interurban road was unknown twenty years ago. In the last two decades there has sprung up a great network of these lines, literally grid-ironing the country, and each year sees more...
