Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Learning the Basics Using the Simplest Approach Possible Never has explaining the underpinnings of Arabic been so explicit, so clear. Written for a wide audience, with this book English speakers will actually enjoy learning to understand the Arabic language. The author gives readers the basic tools they need to comprehend Arabic in a simple, concise way. Virtually anyone can read the book. Written in first person plural, instructional material like this, that reads as easily as a narrative, is hard to come by these days. Mu Octavis Taalib instructs Arabic courses in suburban Atlanta. As an apprentice, he studied the Arabic language as taught by Nashid Abdul Khaaliq, an Arabic and Qur'anic scholar from Boston. Then Abdul Khaaliq was fresh back from two years in Cairo, Egypt, and it's Al Azhar University. Taalib explains, The months I spent seated in front of Abdul Khaaliq were remarkable times. He was such a extraordinary teacher, an educator in the truest sense of the word. He brought the Arabic to life and put it within reach. As a...
