Excerpt: .to worship God. It is Rene, his associate, who is both the architect and builder. It will in no respect resemble the cabins of the savages, except in its covering of bark. In all other particulars it will resemble a house such as they build in France. Behind the altar he has contrived to make a small room. Every one in the whole town speaks of the skill of Rene. He dispenses various medicines which he prepares, himself, on the spot; he dresses all kinds of wouuds and heals them; he treats all the sick. Many Cayugas said to me, that but for him they would have died. One cannot believe to what extent he is loved by these savages. Would that it might please God that each of our missions had a man like him! There is no hint in the whole narrative of...
