Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Report of the Select Committee on the License Law The committee to whom was referred sundry petitions from the citizens of this State, playing the passage of an act requiring the voters at the next General Election in this State, (or at a special election, if in their judgment it is more expedient, ) to decide by ballot whether the present License Law granting privilege to traffic in intoxicating liquors shall continue to exist. The subject being one of great interest, not only in a moral, but also in a pecuniary point. Your committee have investigated the subject in all its aspects, and have concluded that the honor and welfare of this community, demands that an expression should be had from the people, in relation to this momentous subject. They have not as will appear in the subsequent part of this report, depended entirely upon their own opinions and views, but have obtained information from sources to be relied upon, which enables them to place the subject properly before this Legislature. Intemperance is a moral evil, its serious and awful effects have been seen and acknowledged from the days of righteous Noah, down to the present time. This will be clearly demonstrated when we refer to ancient and modern history, for example let us look at the effects of this vice upon a few prominent men that have lived at different periods in the world. There was Nabal and Elah, Belshazzar and Benhadad; Anacreon, the Jonic Lyrist, Dyonisous, the Tyrant of Syracuse, Alexander the Great, Marius the Roman Consul, and Jovian, the last of the Emperors. Modern times also evidence the destruction of men, pre-eminently...
