Write It Right Workbook #3: Plot, Dialogue presents two more of the necessary skills writers must master to be the best writers they can be. Designed for all levels-beginner, intermediate and advanced-all writers all will gain maximum value from these exercises. Each lesson encourages you to break through your comfort zone, and best of all, because the exercises cross all levels, you can return to them over and over as your skills continue to grow and develop. Unit #5: Plot contains 8 exercises on crafting flawless, intricate plots that sizzle off the page. You ll discover what constitutes a viable plot, and how to spot an idea that doesn t have enough depth before you start to write. You ll discover the importance to plot of a through line, how to analyze ideas for viable plots, and where and how to find plots in the world around you. Unit #6: Dialogue offers 8 lessons/exercises that will show you how to write sparkling dialogue that sounds perfectly natural while still addressing the six necessary ingredients that make dialogue an integral part of the story. You will learn how to write for your audience, make your characters voices unique, use idioms to infuse verisimilitude, how to tag properly and how to incorporate subtext into what your characters say. You ll soon be writing realistic dialogue that serves the purpose of your story and leaves your readers amazed. Even though these are Units #5 and #6, this workbook stands alone. You do not need to begin with Unit #1 and work forward. Each Unit is self-contained and...
