Thunder Bay Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass and Other Works, Frederick Douglass, Born into slavery in Talbot County, MD, Frederick Douglass became a champion of the abolitionist movement after escaping to the North in 1838. Douglass later remarked upon his arrival in New York, "I have often been asked how I felt when I first found myself on free soil. And my readers may share the same curiosity." Readers did indeed share in this curiosity and Douglass became a much-admired orator and writer, active in both the abolitionist and the women's suffrage movements. Douglass is best remembered through his autobiography, Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass, an American Slave, Written By Himself. Along with My Bondage and My Freedom and several of Douglass' speeches, these writings offer important glimpses into American history and are now available in a chic and affordable edition as part of the Word Cloud Classics series from Canterbury Classics. This edition includes: The Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass My Bondage and My Freedom "Reception Speech" "Letter to His Old Master" "The Nature of Slavery" "Inhumanity of Slavery" "What to the Slave Is the Fourth of July?" "The Internal Slave Trade," "The Slavery Party" "The Anti-Slavery Movement" Lexile score: 1140L.
